The Team Up! - Media for Adult Education project is a pan-European project focused on strengthening media and information education skills for adults through the creation of media products. As the project comes to its conclusion, the Team Up! team, consisting of 4Change (Portugal), KARPOS (Greece), FORMA.Azione (Italy), and ERIM (France), is excited to welcome you to this interactive final event. In the program, you will find dynamic presentations on media and information education, a fun game with opportunities to win prizes, as well as short videos on women's rights, accompanied by testimonials from those who contributed to their creation. To facilitate exchange, understanding, and participation of all participants in this final event, we present this document summarizing the key points of our meeting, available in 7 European languages.
